

The Indiana Telephone Privacy law has immensely improved our lives. We no longer are interrupted at dinner time. We longer have to worry about who is calling before we answer the phone. With our busy schedules, our family time is so valuable and I believe that if you change our law, you will hurt our family time.